

UrbanMetaMapping Semester Talks: Winter Term 2021/22 via zoom, 12.00 - 13.00 (CEST/CET)

Registration via: talks.urbanmetamapping@uni-bamberg.de

Program

September, 15:

Peter Larkham, Birmingham City University and David Adams, University of Birmingham:

Relics of war: identifying and mapping 'destroyed' churches in modern landscapes

October, 20:

John Pendlebury, Newcastle University

Conservation, planning and regeneration in the post-war British city: the case of York

November, 17:

Jaroslav Ira, Charles University Prague

Grand narratives and little places: Deconstructing small towns' imaginaries in the Czech lands and Germany (ca. 1900-1940)

December, 15:

Gruia Badescu, University of Konstanz

Making sense of ruins: Approaches of post-war urban reconstruction and dealing with the past after 1945

January, 19:

Radosław Ptasiński, University of Szczecin

Szczecin 1945: Between German heritage and constructing a Polish identity

February, 16:

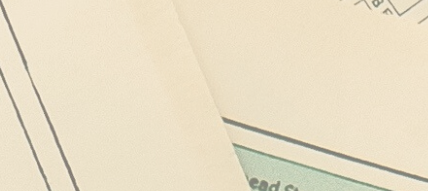

Aleksandra Paradowska, University of the Arts, Poznan

Same spaces - new meanings. German urban planning for Polish cities in Wartheland, 1939-1945

March, 16:

Mykola Makhortykh, University of Bern

Digital maps of the conflict in the Eastern Ukraine

 UrbanMetaMapping

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry of Education and Research